Writing Center Workshops

What students say about Writing Center workshops:

“It was a great refresher!”

“I enjoyed the application of our new skills to ‘real life’ examples!”

“Great engagement and discussion!”

A review of what students have once learned but since forgotten.

An introduction to a new genre of writing.

A Writing Center Workshop Is...

A place to discuss writing with other students from across the university.

A space where students can take their writing to the next level.

Workshops for Faculty and TAs:

Designing Effective Writing Assignments
Conferencing with Students about Papers
Responding to & Evaluating Student Writing
Writing Recommendation Letters
Writing Statements of Teaching Philosophy

Some Workshops We Offer...

Literary Analysis: No Problem!
Writing Critical Reviews of Nonfiction Books and Articles
Communicating Your Message with PowerPoint
Grammar I: A Review of English Grammar
Writing Research Posters
Developing and Delivering Conference Presentations
A Dissertator’s Primer
Fulbright Draft Workshop
Teach for America: Preparing the Application
Improving Style
Productive and Professional Blogging
Writing Application Essays and Statements of Purpose for Graduate School
The Basics of APA Documentation
Writing Graduate Research Proposals
Preparing for the Liberal Arts Essay Contest
Writing Literature Reviews of Published Research
Writing an Effective CV
Writing for Graduate Nursing Students
Senior Thesis Workshop

Students rate the overall helpfulness of the classes at 1.5 and the quality of teaching at 1.3 (1 = excellent; 4 = poor).